

ROTATING CIRCLES/LINES

1

Students stand in two concentric circles or equivalent lines.

2

Circles or lines face each other so that they are standing facing a partner.

3

You determine when and how many places students move to face a new partner and share information.

4

To keep it simple, only one circle or one line moves.

